§ 1 Rights Granted

The copyright to the Contribution identified above is transferred to Springer Science + Business Media B.V., Dordrecht (hereinafter called Springer). The copyright transfer covers the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the Contribution, including reprints, translations, photographic reproductions, microform, electronic form (offline, online), or any other reproductions of similar nature (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable).

Springer will take, either in its own name or in that of the Author, any necessary steps to protect these rights against infringement by third parties. It will have the copyright notice inserted into all editions of the Contribution according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection, either in its own name or in that of the Author.

If the Author is an employee of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of his employment, the work is not subject to U.S. copyright protection. If the work was performed under Government contract, but the Author is not a Government employee, Springer grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or part of the work and to authorize others to do so for U.S. Government purposes. If the Author is an officer or employee of the U.S. Government reference will be made to this status on the signature page.

The Author retains the right to republish the Contribution in any collection consisting solely of the Author's own works without charge and subject only notifying Springer in writing prior to such publication of the intent to do so and to ensuring that the publication by Springer is properly credited and that the relevant copyright notice is repeated verbatim.

The Author warrants that the work has not heretofore been published in whole or in part, that it contains no libelous statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory rights or proprietary rights of others; and that he will indemnify Springer against any cost, expenses or damages for which Springer may become liable as a result of any breach of this warranty. He also warrants that he has obtained the customary permission from the copyright owner or his legal representative whenever a passage from copyrighted material is quoted or a table or illustration from such material is used. In these cases the Author is required to indicate in his Contribution the precise source.

§ 2 Delivery of the Work

The Author agrees to deliver to Springer not later than the 30th of June 2007 comprising approximately _____ printed pages, including approximately _____ illustrations.

§ 3 Publication

Springer agrees to publish the said Contribution at its own cost and expense.

§ 4 Author's Copies

The Author is entitled to obtain copies of the published work in which his contribution appears for his personal use at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list-price directly from Springer. Furthermore, the Author is entitled to purchase for his personal use (directly from Springer) other books published by Springer at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list price. Resale of such copies is not permitted.

§ 5 Additional Provisions

§ 6 Entire Agreement

This agreement shall be deemed to be made under and shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Netherlands.
